The Complete Spy Gadgets Catalog

Apart from Space race and Nuclear weapons research, there are 4 categories of agent gadgets research in “Us and Them – Cold War”.

Surveillance, Weapons, Assassination and Interrogation.

1. Surveillance gadgets help your agents steal or protect information.
2. Weapons help them defend themselves.
3. Assassination helps them kill enemies.
4. Interrogation makes the excruciation of information during and interrogation easier or helps your agents not to break and reveal information.

1. Surveillance

Drop Spike

This stainless steel hollow spike is Waterproof up to 50m and mildew-proof. That makes it the perfect way to get rid of “hot packages” or to exchange information with another operative without meeting face to face, as it can be easily pushed into the ground or placed inside a shower for later retrieval. Don't hesitate, every modern agent needs one.

Hollow coin concealment

As it is often said, coins have 2 sides... Well think again cause this particular coin has four sides. In its hollow space you can easily hide small written messages or microfilm and is easily blend into a pocket full of change.

One time pad

Painstaking? Yes. Cumbersome? Maybe. But why settle for less when you can have the ultimate encryption method? A one time pad is the only currently known unconditionally secure encryption system. The method is really very simple for everyone to use. Two copies of the pad are used, one for the sender, and one for the receiver. Each contains a random string of letters, which are used to encrypt each letter of the message. The receiver of the message then uses the same key to decode the message. One time pad, a marvellously secure crypto system that is mathematically impossible to break.

Invisible ink

Send a postcard from behind enemy lines to the headquarters and remain undetected. Just write a visible message in ordinary ink, with the invisible message written between the lines, so even if it gets to the wrong hands the enemy will read: "Thank you for everything my love. Our days together will always remain in my heart as the best time of my life. I will miss your eyes, your smile but most of all the things you did to me with that huge mango."

Seduction techniques

Sexpionage is one of the most sophisticated ways to retrieve information and the noble art of sex spying has being used for ages, as people noticed from the ancient years how difficult is to keep a secret in bed. The results of sex spying were always very rewarding and could be used against all targets since everybody has an itch to scratch. Our army of specialists has managed to take this art a step further, refine the techniques and form it in what we love to call the seduction university.

Invisible ink reader spray

Still searching for that hidden message in his words? Don't seem to be able to read between the lines? While most invisible inks can be revealed with fire and others are visible under ultraviolet light, the most sophisticated ones can be read only when a special chemical is applied directly to the invisible ink. This chemical is now available in a spray for easy use and comes to economical (500ml) and travel size (100ml).

Microdot Camera

Congratulations. After months of preparation, millions of dollars spend and dozens of human lives lost, you've managed to steal the design of the enemy's latest H-bomb. Now with all enemy agents, police and border guards looking for you, exactly how do you plan to smuggle outside the country the 1.500.000 pages of the design? Frustrated? Well don't, because the answer is here. This state of the art photo camera can photograph and reduce the design to the size of a pinhead! Now you can easily pass this under the enemy's nose and later, when in safety, use a microscope to read it.

Minox camera

Catch your picture the moment you see it and especially without anyone seeing you! No guesswork, no settings, no fussy focusing either. Designed to be your constant companion to business or pleasure, this amazing compact little camera is easily concealed and weighs less than a cigarette lighter. Comes with a full set of accessories including a flash gun for peanut flash bulb, a 15v battery and a right angle finder for shooting behind your back.

Fiberscope

Inspired by medical instruments, this device can look through small holes on walls, under doors or around corners and as it cannot be detected with radio signals or other electronic emissions, it's every agent's dream come true.

Hidden audio recorders high fidelity sound.

Do you have the feeling that people talk about you behind your back? Want to know what they say when you leave the room? Then this handy device is the answer. It uses the latest technology of tape recorders but instead of tape uses thin wire in order to reduce size. Sound Receiver

This top of the line surveillance device is perfect for when you really need to know what's going on! Hear faint or distant sounds or listen in on a distant conversation from up to 400 meters away. Sounds impossible for the human ears to pick up will now seem as if you're only a couple of steps away. To protect your ears, very loud sounds are automatically limited.

2. WEAPONS

Fairbairn Sykes fighting knife

The ultimate knife for all your stabbing needs. Whether it be man, plant or beast, this magnificent combat knife will get the job done. More than a survival knife, is especially designed to strike accurately at your target's vital organs, while it remains ideal for peeling, slicing, and dicing all of God's creation.

Watch with a garrote cord

This handsome stainless steel watch is the perfect blend of style and function. It features a classic-looking round black dial with three silver-colored hands and simple bar markers. The deadly surprise lies inside its winder. Pull it out and you have a 60cm long garrote cord. Just approach your victim from behind while pretend winding your watch and it's death o'clock! Water-resistant to 15 meters, this watch can handle splashes of water, rain or blood. It has a battery life of five years.

Hidden knives

Sharp and clean whenever you need them, these tiny concealed knives are the ideal escape tools, as they can be used to cut bonds, loosen windows or pick locks. They can also be used as a last resort weapon when everything else has failed. Never leave home without them!

Stun Gun

Terminating enemy agents is not always an option. For example, enemies marked for kidnapping are always more valuable alive than dead. On the other hand, you must be crazy to confront an armed to the teeth enemy agent with bare hands. The answer to the problem is this great stun gun that can deliver a powerful 200,000 volt charge that will daze and disorient an opponent without causing any permanent damage. Comes with a one year warranty against defect and uses five rechargeable 9 volt batteries (not included).

In all, this unique product is the best way of blasting your enemies to the neverland where they all belong.

3. Assassination

Poison weapons

Many assassins struggle in daily basis to overcome the gory reality of their profession with poor results. Apparently it is extremely difficult to keep your hands clean in this line of work. But we promise to put murder under a whole new perspective. Our new generation of poisons is so extremely toxic that even a scratch with an umbrella in a bus stop is enough to get the job done. No blood, no sweat, no pain and no traces left for the police. You will love it, your contactors will love it... Hell, even your victims will love it.

Silenced firearms

Giving a new meaning to the expression killing them softly, our latest generation of firearms lets you send your enemies to the other world without disturbing this one. Our silencer works by suppressing the gases that leave the gun and by using ammunition that travels slower than the speed of sound, avoiding the sonic boom caused by ordinary bullets. Now you can finally operate indoors or outdoors without worrying about alarming the bystanders or the neighbors. Assassins with migraine problems will especially love this one.

Laser Scope

mounts on most firearms.

Take a step into the brave new world of tomorrow. This laser scope projects a laser beam that looks like a small red dot onto your target. This red dot is the last thing your victims will ever see. It's modern, it's cool and the results are unbeatable if you are shooting from moderate to closerange. Free with every laser scope comes an adjustable base for windage and elevation, that

Sectional sniper rifle

Finally the item that all assassins were praying for! This sectional sniper rifle will make all other weapons in your arsenal look like paperweight. Inside a chic leather case a powerful 7.62mm sniper rifle is hidden. Now not only you can move your gear around undetected, but you can also operate miles away from your target and still be able to reach out and touch him in a really bad way. Inside the case you will also find a bipod and a grenade launcher for maximum enjoyment.

Assassination spray

This mix of acid and poison can make murder a doddle. Just spray a doorknob and let the acid pierce your unsuspected victim's skin in order for the poison to act. Comes in travel size and is friendly to the ozone layer.

4. Interrogation

Human body pain map

Excruciation can be a pretty stiff piece of work and not all interrogators are big men with enough physical power for the job. So it's important to be able to inflict the maximum pain with the less effort possible. Now you can save up time and manpower by using our explicit human body pain map. Easy to use and full of explanatory charts and examples, it is an essential companion to all professional interrogators.

Suicide tooth

Can't stand the pain? Fear that you'll lose face to your comrades if you break and squeal under extreme torture techniques? Don't worry. This fake tooth contains a concealed capsule filled with poison. Just bite hard and play the ultimate joke to your interrogator. The death will be quick and painless, so the last laugh is on you. Literally.

Interrogation endurance training

There is no such thing as tough people. Only trained and untrained. So give to your people the opportunity to harden beyond the human limits and laugh at the face of their interrogators. They don't need to be brave, they don't need to be strong. Our interrogation endurance training is designed for the average Joe.

Portable electroshock machine

Tired of moving around heavy machinery? Worried that your interrogations won't be effective enough when away from the headquarters? The solution is here. This portable and handy device is perfect for outdoor and on field interrogations. Comes with a full set of rechargeable batteries that guarantees more than 24 hours of agony for your victims.

Lie detector

Can't tell right from wrong? Need to know who is the friend and who is the enemy? Well, you don't need to guess any more. This simple but very effective device can indicate if a person is being deceptive by analyzing his heart rate, blood pressure, respiratory and electro dermal activity.

Truth serum

They say that a lie well stuck to is as good as the truth. Well, not anymore. After a shot with this serum your prisoners will not be able to help themselves from telling the truth and nothing but the truth, so help them God!
